I. INTRODUCTION

1. Tia Smith (“Claimant”) filed a wrongful foreclosure action against Residential Funding Company LLC (“RFC”), Homecomings Financial LLC (“HF”), GMAC Mortgage LLC (“GMACM”), and Residential Accredit Loans, Inc. (“RALI”), (collectively, “Debtors”) in the Los Angeles Superior Court in the State of California on July 15, 2011. Claimant’s third amended complaint (“TAC”) seeks to set aside a trustee’s sale, declaratory and injunctive relief against a threatened unlawful eviction and damages.

2. On June 12, 2014, the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust (“ResCap Trust”) filed its objection to Claimant’s Proof of Claims advancing multiple arguments which are not supported by the law or facts before the Court.

3. The Claims are based on a prepetition lawsuit filed by Appellant in California state court. Accordingly, Claimant hereby files this Response to the ResCap Trust’s Objection pursuant to section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3007. Claimant opposes the ResCap Trust’s objection on the basis that the ResCap Trust’s reason for disallowance and expungement is premature because the underlying issues set forth in the TAC have not yet been adjudicated. As such, the determination by the ResCap Trust of no liability for the amount of claim is unsupported until final disposition by the Los Angeles Superior Court in the State of California.

4. Essentially the ResCap Trust makes unsupported factual arguments which are not admissible under the federal rules and cannot overcome the presumption in favor of Claimant. In response Claimant puts forward actual admissible evidence and legal argument based on federal and California law. For the reasons stated herein, the Trust’s Objection should be overruled.

A. Claimant Requests the Court to Take Judicial Notice

5. Claimant requests that the Court take judicial notice pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201, of certain facts that support her claims related to the Debtors' credibility and her Proof of Claims in this Court.

Rule 201 ... provides that a Court shall take judicial notice of adjudicative facts...a Bankruptcy Court, in the exercise of its discretionary power under this federal rule, could take judicial notice of all administrative and judicial actions previously undertaken in the proceedings.

In re Kors, Inc., 15 B.R. 444, 446 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1981.)

6. Specifically, Claimant requests that this Court take judicial notice of the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's FORM 10K filing. A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 1 hereto.

7. Claimant requests that the Court take judicial notice of American Mortgage Network, Inc.'s Notice of Assignment, Sale or Transfer of Servicing Rights to Debtor Homecomings Financial LLC. A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 2 hereto.

8. Claimant requests that the Court take judicial notice of Debtor Homecoming Financial LLC's letter noticing mortgage transfer from American Mortgage Network, Inc. to Debtor Homecoming Financial LLC's. A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 3 hereto.

9. Claimant requests that the Court take judicial notice of Aurora Loan Services LLC's letter noticing servicing rights are being assigned, sold or transferred by Debtor Homecoming Financial LLC. A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 4 hereto.

10. Claimant requests that the Court take judicial notice of a copy of Claimants alleged original Adjustable Rate Note. A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 5 hereto.

11. Claimant requests that the Court take judicial notice of a copy of Claimants alleged original Adjustable Rate Note. A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 6 hereto.

12. Claimant requests that the Court take judicial notice of a copy of Claimant' alleged Loan Application. A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 7 hereto.

13. "Judicial notice may be taken of documents filed in other cases and other courts." Hinton v. Bruno, 2014 WL 645028, *1 (D. Conn. 2014) (citing Int'l Star Class Yacht Racing Ass'n v. Tommy Hilfiger U.S.A., Inc. 146 F.3d 66, 70 (2d Cir. 1998)). See also *Wolson v. ## II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

14. December 2, 2006 Claimant executed a promissory note ("Note") in the amount of $556,000 in favor of American Mortgage Network, Inc. ("AMN.") (TAC; Exhibit A.) The refinance loan was allegedly secured by a DOT encumbering 4011 Hubert Avenue in Los Angeles, ("Property.") recorded on December 8, 2006. The DOT identified Appellant as borrower, AMN as Lender, MERS as nominal beneficiary "acting solely as a nominee for Lender and Lender's successors and assigns" and First American Title Insurance Company ("First American") as trustee. (TAC; Exhibit B.)

15. Claimant's loan was purportedly sold to a securitized trust, Residential Accredit Loans Inc., Series 2007-QO1 Trust. ("RALI 2007-QO1 Trust.") Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas serves as trustee of the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust ("DBTCA.")

16. According to a notice dated December 30, 2006, AMN informed Claimant her mortgage servicing rights were being transferred to Homecomings Financial ("HF.") (Exhibit 2.)

17. According to a letter dated January 16, 2007, HF informed Claimant they were her new servicer. (Exhibit 3.) Appellant began making payments to Homecomings in February 2007.

18. According to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's FORM 10-K ANNUAL REPORT filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), Residential Capital, LLC ("ResCap"), which owns indirectly all of the equity of both Defendants Homecomings and GMAC Mortgage LLC ("GMACM") restructured the operations of Homecomings and GMACM. As a result of such restructuring, on September 24, 2007, Homecomings transferred its entire mortgage servicing platform to GMACM and Homecomings has not serviced any of those mortgage loans since. (Exhibit 1.)

(See <http://www.sec.gov/Archives/edgar/data/1384915/000138491508000009/qo110k07.txt>)

19. According to a letter dated March 18, 2008 ALS informs Claimant the servicing of her loan was being assigned, sold or transferred from Homecomings to ALS and the transfer included the right to collect payments from Claimant. (Exhibit 4.)

20. According to a representative of ALS, on April 30, 2008, ALS orally told Appellant she was in default.

21. July 15, 2011, Appellant filed this underlying action to prevent a wrongful foreclosure.

22. November 16, 2011, ALS purportedly purchased Appellant's home in a foreclosure sale utilizing a credit bid.

23. On May 14, 2012, each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby staying all proceedings in Claimant's wrongful foreclosure action towards the Debtors.

24. On August 29, 2012, this Court entered the Bar Date Order, which established November 9, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. as the deadline to file proofs of claim by virtually all creditors against the Debtors (the "General Bar Date") and prescribed the form and manner for filing proofs of claim. (ECF Doc. # 1309 ¶¶ 2, 3.)

25. On November 9, 2012, Claimant filed the following proof of claims:

1. No. 3889, a General Unsecured claim in the amount of $3,000,000.00 against Debtor GMACM.
2. No. 4129, a General Unsecured claim in the amount of $3,000,000.00 against Debtor HF.
3. No. 4134, a General Unsecured claim in the amount of $3,000,000.00 against Debtor RFC.
4. No. 4139, a General Unsecured claim in the amount of $3,000,000.00 against Debtor RALI.

26. The Court entered an order on March 21, 2013 (the “Procedures Order,” ECF Doc. # 3294), authorizing the Debtors to file omnibus objections on various grounds, including those provided in Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d) and certain additional grounds.

27. On June 25, 2014, the Trust filed the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust’s Sixty-Ninth Omnibus Objection to Claims (No Liability Borrower Claims) (the “Objection,” ECF Doc. # 7188). The ResCap Trust attached a chart for each claim submitted by Claimant asserting their lack of liability. In support of the Objection, the ResCap Trust submitted the Declarations of Deanna Horst (the “Horst Decl.,” ResCap Trust’s Objection, Exhibit 2) and Norman Rosenbaum (the “Rosenbaum Decl.,” ResCap Trust’s Objection, Exhibit 4).

III. STANDARD OF REVIEW

28. Section 501(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “[a] creditor . . . may file a proof of claim.” 11 U.S.C. § 501(a). A filed proof of claim is “deemed allowed, unless a party in interest ...objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). If the claim is properly filed, it is prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. See FED. R. BANKR. P. 3001(f). A party in interest may object to a proof of claim, and once an objection is made, the court must determine whether the objection is well founded. See 4 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 502.02[2] (16th ed. 2013).

Although Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f) establishes the initial evidentiary effect of a filed claim...

[t]he burden of proof for claims brought in the bankruptcy court under [section] 502(a) rests on different parties at different times. Initially, the claimant must allege facts sufficient to support the claim. If the averments in his filed claim meet this standard of sufficiency, it is “prima facie” valid. In other words, a claim that alleges facts sufficient to support a legal liability to the claimant satisfies the claimant’s initial obligation to go forward. The burden of going forward then shifts to the objector to produce evidence sufficient to negate the prima facie validity of the filed claim. It is often said that the objector must produce evidence equal in force to the prima facie case. In practice, the objector must produce evidence which, if believed, would refute at least one of the allegations that is essential to the claim’s legal sufficiency. If the objector produces sufficient evidence to negate one or more of the sworn facts in the proof of claim, the burden reverts to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence.

S.D.N.Y. Nov. 13, 2012) (“The party objecting to the proof of claim bears the burden of “providing evidence to show that the proof of claim should not be allowed”). (emphasis and underscore added)

30. If the objecting party satisfies its initial burden and “the presumption of prima facie validity is overcome—e.g., the objecting party establishes that the proof of claim lacks a sound legal basis—the burden shifts to the claimant to support its proof of claim unless the claimant would not bear that burden outside of bankruptcy.” Id. (citing In re Oneida Ltd., 500 B.R. 384, 389 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009). Bankruptcy Code section 502(b)(1) provides that claims may be disallowed if “unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law.” To determine whether a claim is allowable by law, bankruptcy courts look to “applicable nonbankruptcy law.” In re W.R. Grace & Co., 346 B.R. 672, 674 (Bankr. D. Del.

2006). “What claims of creditors are valid and subsisting obligations against the bankrupt at the time a petition is filed, is a question which, in the absence of overruling federal law, is to be determined by reference to state law.” In re Hess, 404 B.R. 747, 749 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) (quoting Vanston Bondholders Protective Comm. v. Green, 329 U.S. 156, 161 (1946)).

IV. ARGUMENT

31. Claimant contends that the Debtors have failed to come forth with any admissible evidence refuting her allegations essential to her claims. Claimant contends that her Property was wrongfully foreclosed upon by the Debtors and/or Debtors’ agents without any legal, equitable or pecuniary right. As a result of the Debtors’ acts and omissions, Claimant has sustained damages and losses which are subject to her Proof of Claim Nos. 3889, 4129, 4134 and 4139. The fact that Claimant has been delayed in pursuing her claims by the filing of the Debtors’ bankruptcy petition does not diminish the validity of stated and verified claims which the Debtors’ have not rebutted whatsoever with any admissible evidence.

32. Additionally, Claimant asserts she has standing as either a third-party beneficiary or an incidental beneficiary to challenge the ResCap Trust’s assertion that her loan is included in the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. Claimant also asserts she has standing as either a third-party beneficiary or an incidental beneficiary to challenge the Debtors non-compliance of the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust’s Governing Documents.

33. Claimant refinanced her Property in December of 2006, executing a promissory note (“Note”) and deed of trust (“DOT”) in favor of American Mortgage Network, Inc. (AMN.”)

34. Shortly thereafter, AMN sent Claimant a letter notifying her that Debtor HF would soon begin to service her mortgage loan. (Exhibit 2.) Debtor HF also sent Claimant a letter notifying her that it would begin to service her mortgage loan. (Exhibit 3.)

35. The RALI 2007-QO1 Trust, allegedly issued by Debtor RALI filed a 10K form with the Securities and Exchange Committee (“SEC”) declaring that on September 24, 2007, Debtor HF transferred their entire mortgage servicing platform to Debtor GMACM. The RALI 2007-QO1 Trust also declared that after September 24, 2007, HF did not service any loans subject to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust whatsoever.

36. Unbeknownst of the above-referenced transfer between Debtors HF and GMACM, Claimant called HF and requested a loan modification in November of 2007. Miriam, purportedly HF’s representative informed Claimant that because she was current she could not apply for a loan modification. Inviting Claimant’s nonperformance, Miriam told Claimant she would need to skip at least three mortgage payments in order to qualify and be considered for a loan modification. Miriam assured Claimant she would not be in default. Relying and following Miriam’s advice, Claimant skipped three mortgage payments. (Newsom v. Bank of Am., N.A., 2014 WL 2180278 (C.D. Cal. May 22, 2014): [borrowers were current on their mortgage when they began the modification process and were “misled into defaulting.” But for servicer’s misrepresentation, borrowers would not be in their current position. The court allowed borrower’s fraud claim to survive the MTD.])

37. According to the ResCap Trust, HF serviced Claimant’s loan until transferring it to ALS on April 1, 2008. (See ResCap Objection; Exhibit 1 p. 7 ¶ 1.) However, according to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust’s 10K filing with the SEC, HF did not service any loans subject to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust after September 24, 2007. (Exhibit 1.) The ResCap Trust completely contradicts the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust’s filing by stating that HF serviced Claimant’s loan until April of 2008. In light of this confusion, Claimant is uncertain which entity actually interfered with her compliance and performance, advising her to skip her mortgage payments. Was it HF, GMACM, ALS, or some other legal stranger?

38. Claimant received a letter dated March 18, 2008 from Debtors RFC and HF's alleged successor in interest, Aurora Loan Services, LLC ("ALS"), notifying Claimant that HF had transferred the servicing rights of her debt obligation to ALS. (Exhibit 4.) In April of 2008, ALS informed Claimant she was in default. Claimant apprised ALS of HF's representations and ALS claimed there were no notes regarding HF's representations.

39. Thereafter, Claimant began an unsuccessful, three year journey to ascertain a loan modification with Debtors RFC and HF's alleged successor in interest and agent, ALS.

A. Debtors' Account of Loan History

40. According to the ResCap Trust, AMN originated Claimant's loan on November 13, 2006. Debtor RFC purchased the loan from AMN. Interestingly, the ResCap Trust fails to mention the date of sale between RFC and AMN. The ResCap Trust also states that the loan was then securitized where Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas was appointed trustee on or about January 30, 2007. However, the ResCap Trust fails to identify the specific trust Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas as trustee represents. The ResCap Trust states that HF serviced the Loan from December 29, 2006 until servicing transferred to ALS on April 1, 2008. (See ResCap Objection; Ex. 1 p. 7 ¶ 1; p. 8 ¶ 1; p. 9 ¶ 1 ;p. 10 ¶ 1.)

B. The Note

41. On December 2, 2006 Claimant refinanced her Property with a loan purportedly issued by AMN. Claimant signed a Note as the sole obligor in the amount of $556,000.00 in favor of AMN. The Note named the Lender, AMN as the sole obligee.

42. An endorsement that identifies the person or entity “to whom it makes the instrument payable” is known as a special endorsement. An instrument, when specially indorsed, becomes payable to the identified person and may be negotiated only by the endorsement of that person. A special endorsement exists in opposition to a blank endorsement, which does not identify a payee, and instead makes the instrument “payable to bearer” and negotiable “by transfer of possession alone until specially indorsed.”

43. Both RFC and HF’s alleged successor in interest, ALS, sent Claimant two different copies of her Note. Both copies purport to be true and accurate copies of the original note. In order to evidence a complete or unbroken chain of title, the Note should show a special endorsement from AMN to RFC. The Note then should show a special endorsement from RFC to RALI. The Note then should show a special endorsement from RALI to RFC. And finally, the Note should show a special endorsement from RALI to DBTCA.

44. Instead, the first Note at issue here was originally payable to AMN and was allegedly transferred (negotiated) in blank by AMN with an undated blank endorsement on an unnumbered page of the Note. The endorsement reads “Pay To the Order of” is blank ‘WITHOUT RECOURSE, American Mortgage Network, Inc., a Delaware Corporation and was signed by Tiffany Rice, Funder” for AMN. The copy of this Note fails to support the ResCap Trust’s claim that Claimant’s mortgage was securitized. (Exhibit 5.)

45. The second Note at issue was originally payable to AMN and was allegedly transferred (negotiated) by special endorsement to Residential Funding Corporation (RFC), signed by Tiffany Rice, Funder for AMN. Next the same Note was allegedly transferred (negotiated) by special endorsement, to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas as Trustee (“DBTCA”), signed by Judy Faber, Vice President for RFC. However, Judy Faber fails to identify the specific trust DBTCA represents. Lastly, the same Note was allegedly transferred (negotiated) by special endorsement via an allonge to Aurora Loan Services LLC signed by Judy Deits, Authorized Officer for RFC, Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas as Trustee's, Attorney in Fact. Similarly, Judy Deits also fails to identify the specific trust DBTCA represents. All endorsements are undated. The copy of this Note also fails to support the ResCap Trust's claim that Claimant's mortgage was securitized. (Exhibit 6.)

46. Both copies of the Note supplied by RFC and HF's alleged successor in interest, ALS, evidence a broken chain of title showing that Claimant's Note and DOT were not delivered into the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. These alleged transfers are totally inconsistent with the representations and warranties made in the PSA to the SEC and to the holders of the bonds (the Certificate-Holders) issued by the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. Due to the inconsistencies between the copies of the Note and the lack of an explanation as to how ALS came to offer two different copies of the Note into the record, Claimant contends that there is a genuine issue of material fact as to whether Claimant's Note and DOT were deposited into the RALI-2007-QO1 Trust when there is an unexplained gap in the chain of title. .

C. AMN Secured $100 Million Credit Facility from Debtors GMAC and RFC

47. The definition of "warehouse lending" is a line of credit extended by a financial institution (Debtors GMACM and RFC) to a loan originator (AMN) to fund a mortgage that a borrower (Claimant) initially used to buy or refinance a property. The loan typically lasts from the time it is originated to when the loan is sold into the secondary market, whether directly or through a securitization.

48. Claimant contends that prior to closing, her loan was pre-sold to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust Certificate-Holders. This may explain why the Debtors falsified, fabricated and forged Claimant's Loan Application after she signed her loan documents, as Debtors needed to meet certain requirements subject to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's Pooling and Servicing Agreement ("PSA"). After closing, Claimant's Loan was purportedly deposited into the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. However, Claimant contends her mortgage was NEVER deposited into the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. If Claimant's allegations are proven, that the Debtors were involved in the origination of her loan, the Debtors would therefore be liable for any and all loan origination claims.

D. Assumed Liability

49. The ResCap Trust argues that they have no liability for Claimant's origination based claims because no Debtor was involved in the origination of this loan. There is no stated legal basis in the claims for assignee liability and all of the origination claims are time-barred. (See ResCap Trust's Objection; Ex. 1 p. 7 ¶ 2; p. 8 ¶ 2; p. 9 ¶ 2; p. 10 ¶ 2.)

50. The ResCap Trust claims that the Debtors were at one time or another, a purchaser and/or servicer of Claimant's Loan. Claimant contends that because the Debtors were warehouse lenders (the funding source), purchasers and servicers, agency principles apply in this case. As such, the owner of a mortgage loan may be held vicariously liable for the violations of its agent[s]. LiMandri v. Judkins, 52 Cal.App.4th 326, 337, 60 Cal.Rptr.2d 539 (1997) ("[A] duty to disclose may arise from the relationship between ... parties entering into any kind of contractual agreement."). It does not matter that the original transaction was not between Claimant and the Debtors, because by purchasing the loan, Debtors RFC, GMACM and RALI subjected itself to potential liability for its role in the alleged fraudulent scheme. Under TILA, however, “[a]ny person who purchases or is otherwise assigned a mortgage ... shall be subject to all claims and defenses with respect to that mortgage that the consumer could assert against the creditor of the mortgage.” 15 U.S.C. § 1641(d) (1). In turn, “the UCL borrows violations of other laws ... and makes those unlawful practices actionable under the UCL.” Leonel v. Am. Airlines, Inc., 400 F.3d 702, 715 (9th Cir.2005)(quoting Lazar v. Hertz Corp., 69 Cal.App.4th 1494, 82 Cal.Rptr.2d 368 (1999)). Accordingly, since TILA provides that the purchase of a deceptive mortgage is itself actionable conduct, a UCL claim against an assignee whose own actions violate TILA cannot properly be described as imposing “vicarious” liability. See, e.g., Srithong v. Total Inv. Co., 23 Cal.App.4th 721, 726, 28 Cal.Rptr.2d 672 (1994) (“Vicarious liability ‘means that the act or omission of one person ... is imputed by operation of law to another[.]’ ” (quoting Far West Fin. Corp. v. D & S Co., 46 Cal.3d 796, 819, 251 Cal.Rptr. 202, 760 P.2d 399 (1988) (Kaufman, J., concurring and dissenting))) (alteration in original).

51. Claimant alleges her loan was allegedly pooled with other loans and pre-sold with a contractual commitment to the Certificate-Holders of the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust’s and pursuant to the specific terms under the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust’s Prospectus and the PSA, RFC and RALI agreed to assume all liability to which AMN was subject in connection with that loan. Such a broad assumption of liability includes tort liability arising from the conduct of AMN and/or its agents in the origination of the loan.

52. Claimant alleges because the Debtors GMACM and RFC supplied the funding for AMN through a warehouse line of credit pursuant to the specific terms subject to the Revolving Purchase Agreement between AMN and the Debtors GMACM and RFC, the Debtors agreed to assume all liability to which AMN was subject in connection with that loan. Such a broad assumption of liability includes tort liability arising from the conduct of AMN and/or its agents in the origination of the loan.

53. In addition, Claimant alleges pursuant to the specific terms under the Assignment and Assumption Agreement, which RFC allegedly purchased Claimant's Loan from AMN, RFC agreed to assume all liability to which AMN was subject in connection with that loan. Such a broad assumption of liability includes tort liability arising from the conduct of AMN and/or its agents in the origination of the loan.

54. Claimant alleges pursuant to the specific terms under the Assignment and Assumption Agreement, which RALI allegedly purchased Claimant's Loan from RFC, RALI agreed to assume all liability to which RFC was subject in connection with that loan. Such a broad assumption of liability includes tort liability arising from the conduct of RFC and/or its agents in the origination of the loan. The tort liability of one corporation can be 'assumed voluntarily by contract' by another corporation. (See Henkel Corp. v. Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co. (2003) 29 Cal.4th 934, 941.)

55. Claimant alleges pursuant to the specific terms under the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's PSA, the servicer or the master servicer will remain liable for its servicing obligations that are delegated to a subservicer as if the servicer or the master servicer alone were servicing such mortgage loans or contracts. Such a broad assumption of liability includes tort liability arising from the conduct of AMN, HF, GMACM, ALS and/or its agents in the servicing of the loan.

E. The ResCap Trust's Purported Declaration of Deanna Horst is not Admissible under the Federal Rules of Evidence and Should be Disregarded and Stricken

56. The declaration of Deanna Horst with which the Trust attempts to support its version of the facts explicitly incorporates inadmissible hearsay evidence and should be disregarded by the Court. Specifically, Ms. Horst's declaration states:

"...all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge of the Debtors' operations and finances, information learned from my review of relevant documents and information I have received through my discussions with former members of the Debtors' management or other former employees of the Debtors..." (ResCap Trust's Objection; Exhibit 2 ¶ 2) (emphasis added.) "...I or my designee at my direction other have reviewed and analyzed the proof of claim forms and supporting documentation, if any, filed by the claimants listed.. Since the Plan became effective and the Trust was established, I, along with other members of the Liquidating Trust's management or other employees of the Liquidating Trust have consulted with the Trust to continue the claims reconciliation process, analyze claims, and determine the appropriate treatment of the same. In connection with such review and analysis, where applicable, I or other the Liquidating Trust personnel under my supervision, and the Liquidating Trust's and the Trust's professional advisors..." (ResCap Trust's Objection: Exhibit 2 ¶ 3) (emphasis added)

57. Federal Rule of Evidence 801 defines hearsay as "a statement that (1) the declarant does not make while testifying at the current trial or hearing; and (2) a party offers in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted in the statement." The Horst declaration falls squarely under this definition, as the declarant, Ms. Horst, is not making her statements to be presented to the Court at a hearing on the objection to Claimant's Proof of Claims, and the statements contained in her declaration are being offered for their truth. Federal Rule of Evidence 802 precludes admission of hearsay unless otherwise provided by a federal statute, the Federal Rules of Evidence or other rules prescribed by the Supreme Court.

58. In this case, no such provision is made for the testimony in Ms. Horst's declaration, which she admits is based on information provided by an unknown number of unnamed persons. To the extent the ResCap Trust relies on the exception for regularly conducted activity for the admissibility of Ms. Horst's declaration, this reliance is misplaced. Federal Rule of Evidence 803(6) does provide that a record of a regularly conducted activity is admissible as an exception to the hearsay rule. However, in order to qualify as a record of a regularly conducted activity however, the party offering the purported record must show, inter alia, that "the record was made at or near the time by – or from information transmitted by – someone with knowledge... the record was kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of a business... making the record was a regular practice of that activity...[and]...neither the source of information nor the method or circumstances of preparation indicate a lack of trustworthiness." Here, the Horst Declaration was not made at or near the time of the events it recounts.

59. The declaration was executed on June 25, 2014, but purports to describe events that happened as far back as November 13, 2006. There is no showing by the ResCap Trust that the statements in the declaration were transmitted by anyone with knowledge of the facts alleged. Indeed, the ResCap Trust does not even assert such transmission. Secondly, the declaration is not a document kept in the course of the ResCap Trust's regularly conducted business activity, and there is no showing or assertion to the contrary. Finally, the fact that the declaration explicitly states that it is based on information supplied by unnamed individuals at unspecified times, but then does not indicate at any time what particular facts were transmitted to Ms. Horst by these persons indicates a lack of trustworthiness that should preclude the declaration's admission into evidence. It is the business records that constitute the evidence, not the testimony of the witness referring to them. To prove the content of a writing, recording, or photograph, the original writing, recording, or photograph is required except as otherwise provided by law.

60. How can the parties or the Court determine which of the facts in the declaration are based on Ms. Horst's personal knowledge, and which have been supplied by the unnamed persons to which she refers? How can the parties or the Court even know that such unnamed persons actually exist? The vague, boilerplate references to unnamed sources of unspecified information indicates a lack of trustworthiness in the circumstances of this declaration's preparation that should preclude its admission.

61. In a similar situation where a declarant hoped to affirm the accuracy of information transmitted by an unknown number of unnamed persons at unnamed times, the Federal District Court for the Eastern District of New York stated that "[s]ignificantly, Plaintiff never identified the source for her information regarding the interaction, or lack thereof, between [other parties], and her assertion appears to be rooted in hearsay..." Hyek v. Field Support Services, Inc., 702 F.Supp.2d 84, 96 (E.D.N.Y. 2010). Such is the case here. The ResCap Trust hopes to support numerous factual assertions with Ms. Horst's declaration, which admittedly relies on information transmitted by an unspecified number of unnamed people on unspecified dates. Such a declaration is plainly inadmissible hearsay not subject to any exception to the general ban on hearsay evidence and should be excluded, stricken, and otherwise disregarded by the Court.

F. Claimant's Claims are not Time-Barred

62. The statute of limitations for fraud is three years. (Code of Civil Procedure § 338, subd. (d); Krieger v. Nick Alexander Imports, Inc. (1991) 234 Cal.App.3d 205, 219.) This section also codifies the delayed discovery rule, providing a cause of action for fraud "is not to be deemed to have accrued until the discovery, by the aggrieved party, of the facts constituting the fraud or mistake.”(Brandon G. v. Gray (2003) 111 Cal.App.4th 29, 35; Code of Civil Procedure § 338, subd. (d); see also Code of Civil Procedure § 312.)

63. “[T]he ground of relief is that the defendant, having by fraud or deceit concealed material facts and by misrepresentations hindered the plaintiff from bringing an action within the statutory period, is estopped from taking advantage of his own wrong.”(Pashley v. Pacific Elec. Ry. Co. (1944) 25 Cal.2d 226, 231.)

64. Claimant contends she didn’t and couldn’t have discovered through the exercise of reasonable diligence she was injured by the Debtors’ manipulation of her Loan Application. Thereby, tricking her into her loan, or much less who caused that injury, until, at the earliest on or near November 15, 2009, when Appellant received ALS’ response to her qualified written request. (“QWR.”) The QWR was accompanied by a compact disc, which contained a copy of her alleged Loan Application. (TAC ¶¶ 16-17; 52-53.) However, Claimant didn’t review the Application until sometime in June of 2011.

65. Similarly, Claimant contends she didn’t and couldn’t have discovered through the exercise of reasonable diligence a 2nd promissory Note purportedly endorsed to ALS. Claimant received ALS’ response to another QWR. (TAC ¶ 69.) The QWR was accompanied by another compact disc, which contained a copy of her alleged Note. Although she received this evidence in late July of 2011, Claimant failed to read the Note in its entirety until August 10, 2013.

66. Additionally, Appellant didn’t and couldn’t have discovered through the exercise of reasonable diligence she was injured by Debtors tricking her into her loan, much less who caused that injury, until, at the earliest on or near October 25, 2012, when ALS made a judicial admission in support of its motion for relief from stay in her tenant, Stanley Barnett’s bankruptcy case, that Deutsche Bank funded Appellant's loan. Claimant was led to believe AMN funded the refinance of her mortgage. Because Debtors didn't disclose this information to Appellant before she signed her loan documents, Claimant couldn't have discovered this concealed fact. (TAC ¶ 248.) 'The fact...the party seeking relief has read the instrument and knows its contents does not prevent a court from finding...it was executed under a mistake.' [Citations.]" (Western Title Guar. Co., supra, 235 Cal.App.2d at p. 285.)

67. Finally, Claimant contends she recently discovered Debtors' alleged successor in interest and agent, ALS NEVER acquired servicing rights of her loan. Although, Claimant has contended all along ALS didn't have any legal rights, she only recently discovered ALS did not acquire servicing rights from Debtor HF in any manner because Debtor HF transferred its entire mortgage servicing platform to Debtor GMACM on September 24, 2007, prior to ALS' claim of acquisition. (Exhibit 1.) Claimant didn't and couldn't have discovered through the exercise of reasonable diligence she was injured by ALS claiming to be her servicer, until, at the earliest July 15, 2011. Although ALS' representative revealed the "code name" of Claimant's Lender, it took further research to discover the "code name" referenced a REMIC trust. (TAC ¶ 69.) Although, Claimant obtained the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's 10K filing in July of 2011, she did not discover HF transferred its servicing platform to Debtor GMACM until November 2013. Because neither Debtor HF nor Debtor GMACM notified Claimant regarding its transfer between the two, Claimant couldn't have discovered this concealed fact.

68. Claimant alleges the statute of limitations had not run on any of her causes of action. Thus, because Claimant brought her action within three years of actually discovering the mistake or within three years of receiving facts putting her on inquiry or with which facts she, by reasonable diligence, could and should have discovered the mistake, the statute of limitations doesn't bar Claimant's claims.

G. Claimant has Stated Proper Causes of Action under California and Federal Law Which are Subject to her Proof of Claims

69. The ResCap Trust argues that they have no liability for Claimant's origination based claims because "no Debtor was involved in the origination of this loan. There is no stated legal basis in the claims for assignee liability and all of the origination claims are time-barred." (See ResCap Trust's Objection Exhibit 1 p. 7 ¶ 2; p. 8 ¶ 2; p. 9 ¶ 2; p. 10 ¶ 2.) The ResCap Trust asserts that based on the facts and reasons stated in its No Liability Summary, Claimant's Proof of Claims do not give rise to liability for claims for fraud, tortious interference with contract, wrongful foreclosure, cancellation of instruments, breach of contract, breach of forbearance agreements, unfair competition, unfair debt collection, TILA, unjust enrichment, accounting, constructive trust, fraudulent omissions, or quiet title. (ResCap Trust's Objection Exhibit 1 p. 7 ¶ 4; p. 8 ¶ 4; p. 9 ¶ 4; p. 10 ¶ 4.) The ResCap Trust is wrong.

1. Second Cause of Action for Fraud (Against RFC, GMACM and HF)

70. The elements of a cause of action for fraud are: (1) a misrepresentation; (2) knowledge of falsity; (3) intent to defraud or induce reliance; and (4) actual reliance by the plaintiff resulting in damage. (CCC § 1709; Conroy v. Regents of University of California (2009) 45 Cal.4th 1244, 1255; Small v. Fritz Companies, Inc. (2003) 30 Cal.4th 167, 173.) (Robinson Helicopter Co., Inc. v. Dana Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 979, 990.)

71. The ResCap Trust argues that the Debtors have no liability for Claimant's origination based claims because no Debtor was involved in the origination of her loan. Yet, Debtors RFC and HF's alleged successor in interest, ALS, the alleged servicer for DBTCA contradicts Debtors argument by claiming DBTCA funded Claimant's Loan.

72. According to ALS "...Deutsche Bank was the investor who provided the funds for the loan, not the lender or beneficiary..." Claimant alleges that because full disclosure was not given regarding the parties involved, each party's respective rights, and the true intentions of the parties, she disputes the validity of the Note, the DOT, the parties involved and the amounts owed. Claimant alleges other agreements (i.e. the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's PSA) were purportedly made outside of her mortgage contract and these agreements altered the nature of her mortgage. As such, Claimant alleges she didn't consent to the formation of the alleged contracts and she seeks cancellation of the Note and DOT. Harris v. Atlantic Richfield Co., 14 Cal. App. 4th 70, 78 (1993) ("when one party commits a fraud during the contract formation or performance, the injured party may recover in contract and tort"). "Contract formation requires mutual consent, which cannot exist unless the parties 'agree upon the same thing in the same sense.'" Bustamante v. Intuit, Inc., 141 Cal. App. 4th 199, 208 (2006) (quoting California Civil Code §§ 1580, 1550, 1565). As a condition of obtaining cancellation of a voidable deed, the party seeking relief is generally required to restore or offer to restore to the defendant everything of value received in the underlying transaction. However, if the deed is void, as in the case of fraud in the execution or forgery, restoration is not necessary [see Fleming v. Kagan (1961) 189 Cal. App. 2d 791, 796, 797, 11 Cal. Rptr. 737.]

73. Importantly, Debtor RFC was the original sponsor and master servicer for the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. RFC allegedly sold its master servicing rights of all the pooled loans within the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust to ALS sometime in April 2008. This purported sale allegedly included all RFC's books and records for the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust.

74. According to ALS, the Debtors had actual and constructive notice of the alleged fraud perpetrated at origination because the Debtors had in their possession the original forged Loan Application used to induce Claimant to enter into said mortgage loan with Debtors' agent, AMN.

75. Claimant asserts Debtors falsified her income and forged her signature on the Loan Application, after she executed her loan, but before the DOT recorded. (Exhibit 7) (TAC ¶¶ 16, 260.) Claimant contends the DOT and Note are void as a result of Debtors' fraudulent conduct. (TAC ¶¶ 151-152.)

76. Claimant relied on Debtor HF and Debtors' agents' misrepresentations and has been damaged in the following ways: (1) she has been deprived of the equity in her home; (2) the title to her home has been clouded; (3) she paid the wrong party for an undetermined amount of time and has overpaid in interest, penalties, fees and taxes that were calculated as a result of the misapplication of payments; (4) her credit and credit scores have been damaged; (5) she has expended significant funds to cover litigation costs; (6) multiple parties may seek to enforce her debt obligation against her; (7) Appellant's home has purportedly been sold at a trustee's sale; and (8) she had to defend an unlawful eviction. These are all sufficient allegations of injury. (TAC ¶ 271.)

77. Claimant provides facts supporting her allegations that, depending on the evidence, could lead a trier of fact to reasonably conclude that ALS received the defective Loan Application and the information asserting DBTCA funded Claimant's Loan from the records and books of Debtor RFC, the originating sponsor and master servicer for the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust.

78. Interestingly, the ResCap Trust asserts that Debtor RFC sold Claimant's DOT and Note to DBTCA. (See ResCap Trust's Objection Exhibit 1 page 7 ¶ 1) Yet, Debtor RALI's Form S-3

Registration Statement filed with the SEC and the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's Prospectus and PSA
22 TIA SMITH'S OPPOSITION AND RESPONSE TO THE RESCAP BORROWER CLAIMS TRUST'S OMNIBUS SIXTY-NINTH OBJECTION

also filed with the SEC claims Debtor RALI sold Claimant's DOT and Note to DBTCA. Thus, a question of fact exists as to which Debtor actually sold Claimant's DOT and Note to DBTCA.

See [www.sec.gov/Archives/edgar/data/1384915/000138491507000009/0001384915-07-000009.txt]

79. The ResCap Trust presents a blanket defense void of any admissible evidence, although, clearly the Debtors should return to the huddle to review their playbook. Whether Claimant's Loan was individually or corporately originated by Debtors is a question of fact and law that must be determined by a trier of fact where evidence is presented. Thus, Claimant's 2nd cause of action for fraud involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

2. Third Cause of Action for Tortious Interference with Contract (Against RFC, GMACM and HF)

80. "The elements of a cause of action for interference with contractual relations are: (1) the existence of a valid contract between the plaintiff and a third party; (2) the defendant's knowledge of this contract; (3) the defendant's intentional acts designed to induce a breach or disruption of the contractual relationship; (4) actual breach or disruption of the contractual relationship; and (5) resulting damages. [Citation.] Proof the interfering conduct was wrongful, independent from the interference itself, is not required to recover for interference with contractual relations. [Citation.]" (Sole Energy Co. v. Petrominerals Corp. (2005) 128 Cal.App.4th 212, 237-238.)

81. Because the Debtors failed to properly deposit Claimant's Note and DOT into the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust, Claimant contends that HF is a legal stranger to her mortgage contracts. A question of fact exists as to HF's mortgage servicer status. Further, that fact is material.

82. Claimant asserts that HF induced her to skip multiple mortgage payments in order to qualify and be considered for a loan modification which ultimately created a false default declared by the Debtor's successor in interest and agent, ALS.

83. The ResCap Trust asserts Claimant's "loan was in default and due for February 1, 2008 payment when servicing transferred to Aurora..." Claimant contends she did not default and she did not fail to make a payment or cure a payment that was due under her debt obligation. Claimant alleges that Debtor HF induced her into a false default by advising her to skip numerous mortgage payments, in order to qualify and be considered for a modification. However, Claimant specifically pled the Note-Holder's right to insist on the mortgage payment is excused because the Defendants frustrated and/or interfered with her performance. California Civil Code § 1511.3.

84. According to the ResCap Trust, Debtor HF serviced Claimant's loan and that Claimant's loan was securitized on behalf of the Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas as trustee, but fails to identify the trust.

85. According to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's PSA, Debtors RFC and HF agreed to become a guarantor of all debt obligations under the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust.

86. According to the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust's monthly distribution summary statements, dated June 2007 through June 2014, the Certificate-Holders have received all payments due under those obligations. Typically, there is a presumption that if a borrower didn't make a payment as set forth in the note, then the borrower must be delinquent and must be declared in default. However, that is not law. It is undisputed that there can only be a default under the note if the borrower has failed to make a payment or cure a payment that is actually due and declared by the Lender. It is also undisputed that, if the mortgage payment has been made by a third party, a stranger to the contract, then no such payment is due.

87. Claimant alleges Debtor HF advised her to skip three mortgage payments and Claimant followed HF's advice and skipped three mortgage payments. Claimant alleges that as she skipped these three mortgage payments, Debtors RFC and/or HF paid those three mortgage payments to the Certificate-Holders of the RALI-2007-QO1 Trust pursuant to the RALI-2007-QO1 Trust's Prospectus and PSA. As a result of Debtors RFC and/or HF paying Claimant's mortgage payments in her stead, DBTCA suffered no default.

88. In light of these multiple considerations, it follows that the determination of whether Claimant defaulted under her debt obligation is generally a question of fact. Claimant provides facts supporting her allegations that, depending on the evidence, could lead a trier of fact to reasonably conclude that Claimant was either excused from performance or in the alternative, the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust, as the alleged Note-Holder, received all payments and as a result, didn't suffer any injury, resulting in no breach or default under Claimant's Note.

89. Here, Claimant alleges (1) HF represented to Claimant ... that she had to skip her at least three mortgage payments in order to qualify and be considered for a loan modification; (2) HF's representation was false because homeowners did not have to skip any mortgage payments to qualify for any government modification program and HF had no intention of allowing Claimant to modify her existing loan; (3) the misrepresentation was material because it was the but-for cause of Claimant skipping payments; (4) HF knew the statements that a person had to skip at least three mortgage payments were false because they knew it was not a government policy and they did not have an internal written policy that supported any request for the homeowner to skip at least three payments to qualify for a loan modification; (5) HF's statements were made with the intent to induce Claimant to skip at least three mortgage payments and to have her allegedly fall behind in a manner in which it would be almost impossible to catch up and/or bring her payments current and HF never intended to allow Claimant to enter into a loan modification program; (6) Claimant had no way of knowing that there was no HF policy that guaranteed if one skips at least three mortgage payments, they would qualify for a loan modification ...; (7) Claimant relied on HF's statements to her detriment when she skipped three mortgage payments; (8) Claimant had a right to rely on HF's statements because the house was hers and in her name ...; (9) if it were not for HF's fraudulent actions and misstatements, Claimant would never have skipped any mortgage payments and her credit rating would not have been destroyed in an attempt to modify her loan .

90. Claimant's 3rd cause of action for tortious interference with contract in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

3. *Fourth Cause of Action Wrongful Foreclosure (Against RFC, GMACM and HF)

91. The ResCap Trust argues that they have no liability for Claimant's wrongful foreclosure claims because i) loan was in default and due for February 1, 2008 payment when servicing was transferred to ALS, and ii) foreclosure proceedings were never commenced by the Debtors. Debtors' records show that an "option to avoid foreclosure" letter was sent to Claimant on February 11, 2008 as well as a breach letter on March 3, 2008. However, Debtors have failed to produce any admissible evidence in support of these allegations.

92. An action for the tort of wrongful foreclosure will lie if the trustor or mortgagor (borrower) can establish at the time the power of sale was exercised or the foreclosure occurred, no breach of condition or failure of performance existed on the mortgagor's or trustor's part which would have authorized the foreclosure or exercise of the power of sale. See Munger v. Moore, 11 Cal.App.3d 1, 89 Cal.Rptr. 323 (Cal.App.1970).

93. Claimant objects to the ResCap Trust's assertions her loan was purchased and securitized after origination. Moreover, Claimant contends her mortgage was NEVER deposited into the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. Again, because the Debtors failed to properly deposit Claimant's Note and DOT into the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust, Claimant contends that Debtor HF is a legal stranger to her mortgage contracts. Appellant contends her duty to perform under her obligation was excused when Debtor HF and Debtors' agent, ALS induced her to skip certain mortgage payments in order to qualify and be considered for a loan modification which ultimately created a false default. California Civil Code § 1511.3.

94. Claimant's 4th cause of action for wrongful foreclosure in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

4. Fifth Cause of Action Cancellation of Instruments (Against RFC and GMACM)

95. The elements of a cancellation of instrument cause of action are, as follows: (1) a written instrument; (2) a reasonable apprehension it may cause serious injury to someone; and (3) as to whom it is void or voidable. California Civil Code § 3412.

96. The Debtors argue that they have no liability for Claimant's origination based claims because no Debtor was involved in the origination of this loan. Yet, ALS, the alleged servicer for DBTCA contradicts the ResCap Trust's argument by claiming DBTCA funded Claimant's Loan.

97. Importantly, Debtor RFC was the original master servicer for the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. Debtor RFC allegedly sold its master servicing rights of all the pooled loans within the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust to ALS sometime in April 2008. This purported sale allegedly included all Debtor RFC's books and records for the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust. According to ALS, the Debtors had actual and constructive notice of the alleged fraud perpetrated at origination because the Debtors had in their possession the original forged Loan Application.

98. Claimant alleges that because full disclosure was not given regarding the parties involved, each party's respective rights, and the true intentions of the parties, Claimant disputes the validity of the Note, the DOT, the parties involved and the amounts owed. Claimant alleges other agreements were purportedly made outside of her mortgage contract and these agreements altered the nature of her mortgage. As such, Claimant alleges she didn't consent to the formation of the alleged contracts and she seeks cancellation of the Note and DOT. (TAC ¶ 22.) "Contract formation requires mutual consent, which cannot exist unless the parties 'agree upon the same thing in the same sense.'" Bustamante v. Intuit, Inc., 141 Cal. App. 4th 199, 208 (2006) (quoting California Civil Code §§ 1580, 1550, 1565). As a condition of obtaining cancellation of a voidable deed, the party seeking relief is generally required to restore or offer to restore to the defendant everything of value received in the underlying transaction. However, if the deed is void, as in the case of fraud in the execution or forgery, restoration is not necessary [see Fleming v. Kagan (1961) 189 Cal. App. 2d 791, 796, 797, 11 Cal. Rptr. 737.]

99. Claimant provides facts supporting her allegations that, depending on the evidence, could lead a trier of fact to reasonably conclude that ALS received the defective Loan Application and the information asserting DBTCA funded Claimant's Loan from the records and books of RFC, the originating master servicer for the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust.

100. Whether Claimant's Loan was individually or corporately originated by Debtors is a question of fact that must be determined by a trier of fact where evidence is presented.

101. Claimant's 5th cause of action for cancellation of instruments in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

5. Sixth Cause of Action for Breach of Contract [Deed of Trust and Promissory Note]

102. "To allege a cause of action for damages for breach of contract, a plaintiff must allege, '(1) the contract, (2) plaintiff's performance or excuse for nonperformance, (3) defendant's breach, and (4) the resulting damages to plaintiff.' [Citation.]" (Bushell v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (2013) 220 Cal.App.4th at p. 921.)

103. Oral representations made by agents or employees of a servicer or lender and pertaining to the DOT (as opposed to the promissory note) may give rise to a valid breach of contract claim. Harris v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 2013 WL 1820003 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 30, 2013.)

104. The gravamen of the cause of action for breach of contract is that the Note-Holder didn't provide Claimant with notice of acceleration, nor any other notice required by the Note. "[C]ourts will generally enforce the breach of a contractual promise through contract law." (Erlich v. Menezes (1999) 21 Cal.4th 543, 552, 553–554.)

105. Clearly, under the Note and DOT, the Note-Holder or the Lender is the entity which is able to enforce the contracts, and is entitled to payment. No other entity is so entitled. (TAC ¶60.) Therefore, any attempt by legal strangers to enforce the Note is a breach of it and or interference. Claimant contends her mortgage was not deposited into the RALI 2007-QO1 Trust and if Debtors RALI, RFC and/or GMACM are proven to be holder[s] of Claimant's Note, their failure to comply with these provisions constituted a breach of the Note and DOT.

106. Claimant's 6th cause of action for breach of contract [deed of trust and promissory note] in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

6. *Seventh Cause of Action Breach of Contract [Workout and Forbearance Agreements]

107. Claimant alleges Debtors' alleged successor in interest and/or agent, ALS, misrepresented itself as her servicer and as her Lender, fraudulently inducing her into multiple Agreements. (TAC ¶¶ 274, 276.) Claimant alleges ALS didn't have any authority to assess or qualify her for a loan modification because it was neither her Lender/Note-Holder nor the servicer representing the rightful Note-Holder. (California Civil Code § 2920.5(a)). Thus, Claimant argues she didn't consent to the formation of the alleged Agreements and as such, these Agreements are all void. (TAC Exhibits O-S.)

108. Claimant's 7th cause of action for breach of contract [workout and forbearance agreements] in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

7. *Eighth Cause of Action Violation of California Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq.

109. Section 17200 et seq. "is commonly referred to as the Unfair Competition Law (UCL). ""[T]he UCL creates ""three varieties of unfair competition—acts or practices which are unlawful, or unfair, or fraudulent.” [Citation.]’ [Citation.]” (Rossberg v. Bank of America, N.A. (2013) 219 Cal.App.4th 1481, 1501.)

110. Unfair or fraudulent practices provide grounds for relief under § 17200. (Yanting Zhang v. Superior Court (2013) 57 Cal.4th 364, 370.) “In order to state a cause of action under the fraud prong of the UCL a plaintiff need not show that he or others were actually deceived or confused by the conduct or business practice in question. “The ‘fraud’ prong of [the UCL] is unlike common law fraud or deception. A violation can be shown even if no one was actually deceived, relied upon the fraudulent practice, or sustained any damage. Instead, it is only necessary to show that members of the public are likely to be deceived.” [Citations.]’ (Schnall v. Hertz Corp. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 1144, 1167.)”(Buller v. Sutter Health (2008) 160 Cal.App.4th 981, 986.)

111. In addition, a plaintiff can allege a defendant violates the UCL by violating some other California or federal statute or by stating the defendant engaged in deceptive conduct. Cel-Tech Communications, Inc. v. Los Angeles Cellular Telephone Co., 27 Cal.4 th 163, 180 (1999).

112. Claimant alleged numerous violations of California statutes-----California Civil Code § 2924 (a)(1), which courts have read to bar a foreclosure by a party without the power to do so, Javaheri v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 62152, at ** 5-6; violation of the Rosenthal Act, prohibiting debt collection; California Civil Code, §§ 1670.5 and 1671, prohibiting unconscionabiliy; Penal Code section 115(a), barring forgery; and California Civil Code § 1572(3), prohibiting fraudulent concealment; California Civil Code § 1095, failing to disclose principal.(CT:Vol.13:3066-3070 ¶ ¶291-304.) Claimant has demonstrated injury, as required by Business & Professions Code § 17204, because she has alleged reliance and damages, for the reasons stated above. The UCL bars deceptive conduct, such as fraud. Blank v.

Kirwan, 39 Cal.3d at 329. By successfully alleging fraud, Claimant has stated a UCL claim for deceptive acts. Blank v. Kirwan, supra.

113. Claimant's 8th cause of action for violation of California Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq. in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

8. Ninth Cause of Action Violation of California Civil Code § 1788.17 Unfair Debt Collection Practices

114. The Rosenthal Act forbids the use of any "false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt" through its incorporation by reference of the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692(e). (See California Civil Code § 1788.17) (TAC ¶ 312.) Claimant alleges Debtor HF and Debtors' agent ALS violated California Civil Code § 1788.17 by using deceptive means to collect her debt they weren't entitled to. (TAC ¶ 314(d).)

115. Claimant's 9th cause of action for violation of California Civil Code § 1788.17 Unfair Debt Collection Practices in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

9. Eleventh Cause of Action Unjust Enrichment

116. The elements for a claim of unjust enrichment are "receipt of a benefit and unjust retention of the benefit at the expense of another." (Lectrodryer v. Seoul Bank (2000) 77 Cal.App.4th 723, 726.)

117. Claimant asserts an unjust enrichment claim against Debtor HF and Debtor's alleged successor in interest agent, ALS on the grounds Debtor HF and Debtor's agent ALS demanded and accepted mortgage payments to which it was not entitled. Claimant argues it would be unjust to allow Respondents to retain money procured through theft, fraud and forged documents. (TAC ¶¶ 340 -349.)

118. Claimant's 10th cause of action for unjust enrichment in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

10. Twelfth Cause of Action Accounting

119. The ResCap Trust argues that the proof of claims do not give rise to liability for a claim for accounting.

120. Claimant contends Debtor HF and Debtors' alleged successor in interest and agent, ALS falsely represented to her that they were her Lender and servicer, thus, this claim is connected to Appellant's causes of action for fraud and wrongful foreclosure.

121. Claimant contends Debtors and Debtors' agent have held themselves out to be Claimant's Creditors and/or Mortgage Servicer. If this purported relationship with Claimant is proven lawful, then said Debtors have a fiduciary duty to Claimant to properly account for payments made by Claimant.

122. Claimant's 12th cause of action for accounting in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

11. Thirteenth Cause of Action Constructive Trust

123. A person who wrongfully forces a foreclosure sale and then purchases the property should not be permitted to profit from the wrongful act. (TAC ¶ 362.) The ResCap Trust argues “foreclosure proceedings were never commenced by the Debtors.” However, Claimant contends foreclosure proceedings were commenced by Debtors’ alleged successor in interest and/or agent, ALS.

124. Claimant’s 13th cause of action for constructive trust in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust’s Objection should be OVERRULED.

12. Fifteenth Cause of Action for Fraudulent Omissions

125. Under California law, the Loan Documents’ partial representations that omitted material facts, created a duty to disclose all material facts concerning Claimant’s Option ARM loan. Thus, the partial representations in the Loan Documents created a duty to disclose to Claimant that: (i) the low interest rate in the Note was only available for thirty days if at all; (ii) the monthly payment amounts for the first three to five years provided to Claimant on the TILDS were insufficient to pay both principal and interest; (iii) negative amortization was absolutely certain to occur if Claimant made payments according to the payment schedule provided in the Loan Documents; and that (iv) loss of equity and/or loss of Claimant’s residence was certain to occur if Claimant made payments according to the payment schedule.

126. Claimant’s 15th cause of action for fraudulent omissions in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust’s Objection should be OVERRULED.

13. Sixteenth Cause of Action Quiet Title

127. Claimant doesn't seek to quiet title against her mortgagee, she seeks to quiet title to Debtors' alleged successor in interest and/or agent, ALS. Claimant contends that because she didn't default...she can quiet title. Claimant alleged that Debtors and Debtors' agent had no authority to collect payments on the Note or foreclose on the Property. (TAC ¶¶ 26, 264.) Claimant contends she continues to hold rightful title by operation of law and because the trustee's sale is void, Claimant maintains a superior title over Debtors and Debtors' alleged successor in interest and/or agent, ALS. (TAC ¶ 390.)

128. Claimant's 16th cause of action for quiet title in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

14. Seventeenth Cause of Action Violation of TILA; 15 U.S.C. § 1601

129. The loan documents and mandatory disclosure documents provided to Claimant did not comply with the requirements of the Truth in Lending Act ("TILA."). (TAC ¶ 405.)

130. Claimant's 17th cause of action for violation of TILA; 15 U.S.C. § in her TAC is viable against the Debtors and involves disputed issues of fact and law that this Court cannot resolve on the papers alone, as such, the ResCap Trust's Objection should be OVERRULED.

V.
CONCLUSION

131. As stated herein, Claimant has stated valid claims for liability against Debtors, RFC, GMACM, HF and RALI. The ResCap Trust presents a blanket defense void of any admissible evidence for the Court to rebut the prima facie presumption in favor of Claimant. Additionally, as set forth above, Claimant's claims set forth in all her causes of action are neither time barred, nor are they speculative and if the Court has any hesitation whatsoever, Claimant requests the Court to exercise its discretion and permit her to pursue her claims in the pending action in the Los Angeles Superior Court in the State of California or alternatively to appoint a special master at the Debtors' and the ResCap Trust's expense to make findings of fact after a period of discovery and an evidentiary hearing/trial. In sum, The Claimant's claims should be moved to the liability borrower claims pool and retain their status as active claims for which the Debtors are liable. For these reasons Claimant requests the Court to overrule ResCap Trust's Objection with prejudice or grant leave to pursue the alternative relief requested herein.

WHEREFORE, the Claimant respectfully requests that the Court enter an order in which the Claimant's claim is not disallowed and not expunged granting the relief herein and granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: July 22<sup>8</sup>, 2014

ITEM 1112(B) OF REGULATION AB. SIGNIFICANT OBLIGORS OF POOL ASSETS (FINANCIAL INFORMATION).

None.

ITEM 1114(B)(2) OF REGULATION AB: CREDIT ENHANCEMENT AND OTHER SUPPORT, EXCEPT FOR CERTAIN DERIVATIVES INSTRUMENTS (FINANCIAL INFORMATION).

None.

ITEM 1115(B) OF REGULATION AB: CERTAIN DERIVATIVES INSTRUMENTS (FINANCIAL INFORMATION).

Based on the standards set forth in Item 1115(b) of Regulation AB, no information is required in response to this Item.

ITEM 1117 OF REGULATION AB: LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

There are no material pending legal or other proceedings involving the mortgage loans or Residential Funding Company, LLC ("Residential Funding"), as sponsor and master servicer, Residential Accredited Loans, Inc., as depositor, RALI Series 2007-Q01 Trust, as the issuing entity, GMAC Mortgage, LLC ("GMACM"), as subservicer, or other parties described in Item 1117 of Regulation AB that, individually or in the aggregate, would have a material adverse impact on investors in the securities (the "Securities") to which this report relates.

Residential Funding and GMACM are currently parties to various legal proceedings arising from time to time in the ordinary course of their businesses, some of which purport to be class actions. Based on information currently available, it is the opinion of Residential Funding and GMACM that the eventual outcome of any currently pending legal proceeding, individually or in the aggregate, will not have a material adverse effect on their ability to perform their obligations in relation to the mortgage loans. No assurance, however, can be given that the final outcome of these legal proceedings, if unfavorable, either individually or in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse impact on Residential Funding or GMACM. Any such unfavorable outcome could adversely affect the ability of Residential Funding or GMACM to perform its servicing duties with respect to the mortgage loans and potentially lead to the replacement of Residential Funding or GMACM with a successor servicer.

Among the legal proceedings to which Residential Funding is a party is a putative class action lawsuit that was filed against a lender (Mortgage Capital Resources Corporation), Residential Funding and other parties in state court in Kansas City, Missouri. Plaintiffs asserted violations of the Missouri Second Mortgage Loan Act ("SMLA"), Mo.R.S. Section 408.233, based on the lender's charging or contracting for payment of allegedly unlawful closing costs and fees. The relief sought included a refund of all allegedly illegal fees, the refund of interest paid, and the discounted present value of interest to be paid in the future on active mortgage loans. The plaintiffs also sought prejudgment interest and punitive damages.

Residential Funding is an assignee of some of the mortgage loans in question. The plaintiffs contended that Residential Funding is strictly liable for the lender's alleged SMLA violations pursuant to the assignee provisions of the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act of 1994, 15 U.S.C. Section 1641(d)(1). Residential Funding terminated its relationship with the lender in early May 2000.

In connection with that proceeding, on January 4, 2008, a verdict was returned that Residential Funding pay $4.33 million in actual damages and $92 million in punitive damages. Residential Funding intends to appeal and vigorously contest the punitive damage award. However, even if the punitive damage award is not reduced upon appeal, Residential Funding's management believes that any liability with respect to this proceeding would not have a material adverse effect on investors in the Securities.

SUBSTITUTE INFORMATION PROVIDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GENERAL INSTRUCTION J TO FORM 10-K:

ITEM 1119 OF REGULATION AB: AFFILIATIONS AND CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS.

Information contemplated by Item 1119 of Regulation AB has been omitted from this report in reliance on the Instruction to Item 1119.

ITEM 1122 OF REGULATION AB: COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE SERVICING CRITERIA.

Each of Residential Funding, GMACM, Homecomings Financial, LLC ("Homecomings"), Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (each, a "Servicing Participant") has been identified by the registrant as a party participating in the servicing function with respect to the pool assets held by the Issuing Entity. Reports assessing compliance with the servicing criteria applicable to each Servicing Participant (each, a "Report on Assessment") are attached as exhibits to this Form 10-K. In addition, an attestation report (each, an "Attestation Report") regarding each Report on Assessment has been prepared by the related Servicing Participant's registered independent public accounting firm and is attached as an exhibit to this Form 10-K.

Residential Capital, LLC, which owns indirectly all of the equity of both Homecomings and GMACM, has restructured the operations of Homecomings and GMACM. As a result of the restructuring -

- (i) on May 1, 2007, the computer system on which Homecomings maintained its servicing platform was transferred from one system (LSAMS) to another system (MortgageServ) on which its affiliate GMACM maintains its servicing platform; and
- (ii) on September 24, 2007, Homecomings transferred its servicing platform and certain employees responsible for the servicing function to GMACM.

Since September 24, 2007, GMACM has serviced the mortgage loans owned by the trust that were previously serviced by Homecomings, and Homecomings has not serviced any of those mortgage loans.

As a result of the integration of the Homecomings and GMACM servicing platforms on a single computer system as described in clause (i) above -

- (x) the Report on Assessment and related Attestation Report filed as Exhibits 33.3 and 34.3 to this Form 10-K address Homecomings' compliance with the applicable servicing criteria for the pre-platform integration period from January 1, 2007 through April 30, 2007; and
- (y) the Report on Assessment and related Attestation Report filed as Exhibits 33.2 and 34.2 to this Form 10-K address (1) GMACM's compliance with the applicable servicing criteria for the pre-platform integration period from January 1, 2007 through April 30, 2007, and (2) each of Homecomings' and GMACM's compliance with the applicable servicing criteria for the post-platform integration period from May 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007.

Vendors

A Servicing Participant may engage one or more vendors to perform specific and limited, or scripted activities that address all or a portion of one or more servicing criteria applicable to such Servicing Participant. In general in these cases, the Servicing Participant has instituted policies and procedures to monitor whether such vendors' activities comply in all material respects with such servicing criteria, and may elect to take responsibility for assessing compliance with the servicing criteria applicable to such vendors' activities in such Servicing Participant's Report on Assessment. Where the Servicing Participant has not instituted such policies and procedures, or where the Servicing Participant does not otherwise elect to take responsibility for assessing its vendors' activities, the vendor is itself treated as a Servicing Participant and is required to provide its own Report on Assessment and related Attestation Report.

Exceptions

Except as disclosed below, no Report on Assessment or related Attestation Report has identified (i) any material instance of noncompliance with the servicing criteria identified in such Report on Assessment as applicable to the related Servicing Participant or (ii) any material deficiency in such Servicing Participant's policies and procedures to monitor vendor compliance.

GMAC Mortgage, LLC: The Report on Assessment prepared by GMACM and the related Attestation Report have identified material noncompliance with two elements of one servicing criterion applicable to it. Specifically, with regard to servicing criterion 1122(d)(2)(vii), which contemplates that reconciliations are prepared on a monthly basis for all asset-backed securities related bank accounts -

- o certain custodial account reconciliations were not reviewed within the timelines outlined in GMACM's policies and procedures, as contemplated by criterion 1122(d)(2)(vii)(C); and
- o certain custodial accounts had reconciling items which were not resolved within 90 calendar days of original identification, as contemplated by criterion 1122(d)(2)(vii)(D).

The registrant does not believe these instances of noncompliance had material impacts or effects on investors, and appropriate measures have been taken to resolve the bank reconciliation items noted in the Report on Assessment, and to prevent such instances of noncompliance in the future or to detect them in such a manner as to permit prompt correction.

Homecomings Financial, LLC: The Report on Assessment prepared by Homecomings and the related Attestation Report have identified material noncompliance with one servicing criterion applicable to it. Specifically, with regard to servicing criterion 1122(d)(4)(x)(C), certain refunds resulting from payoff transactions were not returned to the obligor within 30 calendar days of full repayment of the related pool asset, as contemplated by such criterion. The registrant does not believe these instances of noncompliance had material impacts or effects on investors, and appropriate measures have been taken to prevent such instances of noncompliance in the future or to detect them in such a manner as to permit prompt correction.

Platform-Level Reports

Regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") require that each Servicing Participant complete a Report on Assessment at a "platform" level, meaning that the transactions covered by the Report on Assessment should include all asset-backed securities transactions involving such Servicing Participant that are backed by the same asset type. Further guidance from the SEC staff identifies additional parameters which a Servicing Participant may apply to define and further limit its platform. For example, a Servicing Participant may define its platform to include only transactions that were completed on or after January 1, 2006 and that were registered with the SEC pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933. Each Servicing Participant is responsible for defining its own platform, and each platform will naturally differ based on various factors, including the Servicing Participant's business model, the transactions in which it is involved and the range of activities performed in those transactions.

Based on our understanding of their platforms and the guidance that is available at this time, we believe that the parameters by which the Servicing Participants have defined their platforms should be permissible. However, because the SEC's regulations are new and the guidance that is available at this time is subject to clarification or change, we cannot assure you that the SEC and its staff will necessarily agree.

ITEM 1123 OF REGULATION AB: SERVICER COMPLIANCE STATEMENT.

Each of Residential Funding, GMACM and Homecomings (each, a "Servicer") has been identified by the registrant as a servicer with respect to the pool assets held by the Issuing Entity. Each Servicer has provided a statement of compliance with its obligations under the servicing agreement applicable to such Servicer (a "Compliance Statement") for the portion of the period covered by this Form 10-K during which such Servicer was servicing the pool assets, in each case signed by an authorized officer of such Servicer. Each Compliance Statement is attached as an exhibit to this Form 10-K. None of the Compliance Statements has identified any instance where the related Servicer has failed to fulfill its obligations under the applicable servicing agreement in any material respects.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR CONSUMER RIGHTS

YOU SHOULD ALSO BE AWARE OF THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION WHICH IS SET OUT IN MORE DETAIL IN SECTION 6 OF RESPA (12 U.S.C. SECTION 2605):

DURING THE 60-DAY PERIOD FOLLOWING THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE TRANSFER OF THE LOAN SERVICING, A LOAN PAYMENT RECEIVED BY YOUR OLD SERVICER BEFORE ITS DUE DATE MAY NOT BE TREATED BY THE NEW LOAN SERVICER AS LATE, AND A LATE FEE MAY NOT BE IMPOSED UPON YOU.

THIS SECTION GIVES YOU CERTAIN CONSUMER RIGHTS. IF YOU SEND A "QUALIFIED WRITTEN REQUEST" TO YOUR LOAN SERVICER CONCERNING THE SERVICING OF YOUR LOAN, THEY MUST PROVIDE YOU WITH A WRITTEN ACKNOWLEDGMENT WITHIN 20 BUSINESS DAYS OF RECEIPT OF YOUR REQUEST. A "QUALIFIED WRITTEN REQUEST" IS WRITTEN CORRESPONDENCE, OTHER THAN NOTICE ON A PAYMENT COUPON OR OTHER PAYMENT MEDIUM SUPPLIED BY THE SERVICER, WHICH INCLUDES YOUR NAME AND ACCOUNT NUMBER, AND YOUR REASON FOR THE REQUEST.

NO LATER THAN 60 BUSINESS DAYS AFTER RECEIVING YOUR REQUEST, YOUR SERVICER MUST MAKE ANY APPROPRIATE CORRECTIONS TO YOUR ACCOUNT AND MUST PROVIDE YOU WITH A WRITTEN CLARIFICATION REGARDING ANY DISPUTE. DURING THIS 60 BUSINESS DAY PERIOD, YOUR SERVICER MAY NOT PROVIDE INFORMATION TO A CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCY CONCERNING ANY OVERDUE PAYMENT RELATED TO SUCH PERIOD OR QUALIFIED WRITTEN REQUEST. HOWEVER, THIS DOES NOT PREVENT THE SERVICER FROM INITIATING FORECLOSURE IF PROPER GROUNDS EXIST UNDER THE MORTGAGE DOCUMENTS. A BUSINESS DAY IS A DAY ON WHICH THE OFFICES OF THE SERVICER ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC FOR CARRYING ON SUBSTANTIALLY ALL OF ITS BUSINESS FUNCTIONS.

SECTION 6 OF RESPA ALSO PROVIDES FOR DAMAGES AND COSTS FOR INDIVIDUALS OR CLASSES OF INDIVIDUALS IN CIRCUMSTANCES WHERE SERVICES ARE SHOWN TO HAVE VIOLATED THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECTION. YOU SHOULD SEEK LEGAL ADVICE IF YOU BELIEVE YOUR RIGHTS HAVE BEEN VIOLATED.

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT, SALE OR TRANSFER OF SERVICING RIGHTS.

This correspondence is an attempt to collect the debt, and any information obtained will be used for that purpose. If you have filed for bankruptcy, or have been discharged in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy proceeding, no attempt is being made to collect this debt or hold you personally responsible for repayment of the debt.

You are hereby notified that the servicing of your mortgage loan, that is, the right to collect payments from you, is being assigned or transferred from your present loan servicer to the new loan servicer shown on the reverse side of this notice.

Except in limited circumstances, the law requires that your present servicer send you notice of this transfer at least 15 days before the effective date of transfer or at closing. Your new servicer must also send you this notice no later than 15 days after the effective date or at closing.

You should also be aware of the following information which is set out in more detail in Section 6 of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) (12 U.S.C.2605):

During the 60 day period following the effective date of the transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer, before its due date, may not be treated by your new servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed.

Section 6 of RESPA (12 U.S.C.2605) gives you certain consumer rights. If you send a "qualified written request" to your loan servicer concerning the servicing of your loan, your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgment within 20 business days of receipt of your request. A "qualified written request" is written correspondence, other than notice on a payment coupon or other payment medium supplied by the servicer, which includes your name, loan number, and your reasons for the request. If you want to send a "qualified written request" regarding the servicing of your loan, it must be sent to this address: Homecomings Financial, P.O. Box 890036, Dallas, TX 75389

Not later than 60 Business Days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, and must provide you with written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60 Business Day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request. However, this does not prevent the servicer from initiating foreclosure if proper grounds exist under the mortgage documents.

A Business day is a day on which the offices of the servicer are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for the damages and costs for the individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that Section. You should seek legal advice if you believe your rights have been violated.

CHOOSING YOUR PAYMENT OPTIONS

Option 1: Minimum Amount Due - This amount will not be sufficient to pay all accrued interest for the month or to pay loan in full over remaining term in equal monthly installments. Therefore, negative amortization will result and any deferred interest will be added to the balance of the loan.
Option 2: Interest Only - No reduction in your principal balance will occur with this payment.

Option 3: Fully Amortized Payment - Traditional payment of interest and principal. Pays all the interest due and reduces your principal in an amount sufficient to pay off your loan on schedule.
Option 4: Accelerated Payment Option - Payment is calculated to amortize the loan based on a 15 year term or the remaining term, whichever is less, resulting in substantial interest savings.

All funds will be applied in the following order:
 (1) Interest due, (2) Principal due, (3) Escrow, (4) Fees, (5) To reduce principal balance.
 Include your loan number on your check.

ADJUSTABLE RATE NOTE

(MTA-Twelve Month Average Index - Payment Caps)

THIS NOTE CONTAINS PROVISIONS THAT WILL CHANGE THE INTEREST RATE AND THE MONTHLY PAYMENT. THERE MAY BE A LIMIT ON THE AMOUNT THAT THE MONTHLY PAYMENT CAN INCREASE OR DECREASE. THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT TO REPAY COULD BE GREATER THAN THE AMOUNT ORIGINALLY BORROWED, BUT NOT MORE THAN THE MAXIMUM LIMIT STATED IN THIS NOTE.

1. BORROWER'S PROMISE TO PAY

In return for a loan that I have received, I promise to pay U.S. $ 556,000.00 (this amount is called "Principal"), plus interest, to the order of Lender. The Principal amount may increase as provided under the terms of this Note but will never exceed (ONE HUNDRED FIFTEEN PERCENT) of the Principal amount I originally borrowed. This is called the "Maximum Limit." Lender is AMERICAN MORTGAGE NETWORK, INC., A DELAWARE CORPORATION

I will make all payments under this Note in the form of cash, check or money order.

I understand that Lender may transfer this Note, Lender or anyone who takes this Note by transfer and who is entitled to receive payments under this Note is called the "Note Holder."

2. INTEREST

(A) Interest Rate

Interest will be charged on unpaid Principal until the full amount of Principal has been paid. I will pay interest at a yearly rate of 1.500 %. The interest rate I will pay may change.

The interest rate required by this Section 2 is the rate I will pay both before and after any default described in Section 7(B) of this Note.

(B) Interest Rate Change Dates

The interest rate I will pay may change on the 1ST day of JANUARY, 2007, and on that day every month thereafter. Each date on which my interest rate could change is called an "Interest Rate Change Date." The new rate of interest will become effective on each Interest Rate Change Date. The interest rate may change monthly, but the monthly payment is recalculated in accordance with Section 3.

(C) Index

Beginning with the first Interest Rate Change Date, my adjustable interest rate will be based on an Index. The "Index" is the "Twelve-Month Average" of the annual yields on actively traded United States Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of one year as published by the Federal Reserve Board in the Federal Reserve Statistical Release entitled "Selected Interest Rates (H.15)" (the "Monthly Yields"). The Twelve Month Average is determined by adding together the Monthly Yields for the most recently available twelve months and dividing by 12. The most recent Index figure available as of the date 15 days before each Interest Rate Change Date is called the "Current Index".

If the Index is no longer available, the Note Holder will choose a new index that is based upon comparable information. The Note Holder will give me notice of this choice.

(D) Calculation of Interest Rate Changes

Before each Interest Rate Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate my new interest rate by adding THREE AND 400/1000 percentage point(s) 3.400 % ("Margin") to the Current Index. The Note Holder will then round the result of this addition to the nearest one-eighth of one percentage point (0.125%). This rounded amount will be my new interest rate until the next Interest Rate Change Date. My interest will never be greater than 9.950 %. Beginning with the first Interest Rate Change Date, my interest rate will never be lower than the Margin.

3. PAYMENTS

(A) Time and Place of Payments

I will make a payment every month.

I will make my monthly payments on the 1ST day of each month beginning on JANUARY 01, 2007. I will make these payments every month until I have paid all the Principal and Interest and any other charges described below that I may owe under this Note. Each monthly payment will be applied as of its scheduled due date and will be applied to interest before Principal. If, on DECEMBER 01, 2036, I still owe amounts under this Note, I will pay those amounts in full on that date, which is called the "Maturity Date."

I will make my monthly payments at P. O. BOX 85302

ATTN: CASHIER'S DEPT., SAN DIEGO, CA 92186

or at a different place if required by the Note Holder.

LOAN NO. 206-989130

(B) Amount of My Initial Monthly Payments

Each of my initial monthly payments until the first Payment Change Date will be in the amount of U.S.
$ 1,918.87 unless adjusted under Section 3 (F).

(C) Payment Change Dates

My monthly payment may change as required by Section 3(D) below beginning on the 1ST day of JANUARY, 2008, and on that day every 12th month thereafter. Each of these dates is called a "Payment Change Date." My monthly payment also will change at any time Section 3(F) or 3(G) below requires me to pay a different monthly payment. The "Minimum Payment" is the minimum amount the Note Holder will accept for my monthly payment which is determined at the last Payment Change Date or as provided in Section 3(F) or 3(G) below. If the Minimum Payment is not sufficient to cover the amount of the interest due then negative amortization will occur.

I will pay the amount of my new Minimum Payment each month beginning on each Payment Change Date or as provided in Section 3(F) or 3(G) below.

(D) Calculation of Monthly Payment Changes

At least 30 days before each Payment Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate the amount of the monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid Principal that I am expected to owe at the Payment Change Date in full on the maturity date in substantially equal payments at the interest rate effective during the month preceding the Payment Change Date. The result of this calculation is called the "Full Payment." Unless Section 3(F) or 3(G) apply, the amount of my new monthly payment effective on a Payment Change Date, will not increase by more than 7.5% of my prior monthly payment. This 7.5% limitation is called the "Payment Cap." This Payment Cap applies only to the Principal and Interest payment and does not apply to any escrow payments Lender may require under the Security Instrument. The Note Holder will apply the Payment Cap by taking the amount of my Minimum Payment due the month preceding the Payment Change Date and multiplying it by the number 1.075. The result of this calculation is called the "Limited Payment." Unless Section 3(F) or 3(G) below requires me to pay a different amount, my new Minimum Payment will be the lesser of the Limited Payment and the Full Payment. I also have the option to pay the Full Payment for my monthly payment.

(E) Additions to My Unpaid Principal

Since my monthly payment amount changes less frequently than the interest rate, and since the monthly payment is subject to the payment limitations described in Section 3 (D), my Minimum Payment could be less than or greater than the amount of the interest portion of the monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid Principal I owe at the monthly payment date in full on the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments. For each month that my monthly payment is less than the interest portion, the Note Holder will subtract the amount of my monthly payment from the amount of the interest portion and will add the difference to my unpaid Principal, and interest will accrue on the amount of this difference at the interest rate required by Section 2. For each month that the monthly payment is greater than the interest portion, the Note Holder will apply the payment as provided in Section 3 (A).

(F) Limit on My Unpaid Principal; Increased Monthly Payment

My unpaid Principal can never exceed the Maximum Limit equal to 115 percent of the Principal amount I originally borrowed. My unpaid Principal could exceed that Maximum Limit due to Minimum Payments and interest rate increases. In that event, on the date that my paying my monthly payment would cause me to exceed that limit, I will instead pay a new monthly payment. This means that my monthly payment may change more frequently than annually and such payment changes will not be limited by the 7.5% Payment Cap. The new Minimum Payment will be in an amount that would be sufficient to repay my then unpaid Principal in full on the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments at the current interest rate.

(G) Required Full Payment

On the TENTH Payment Change Date and on each succeeding fifth Payment Change Date thereafter, I will begin paying the Full Payment as my Minimum Payment until my monthly payment changes again. I also will begin paying the Full Payment as my Minimum Payment on the final Payment Change Date.

(H) Payment Options

After the first Interest Rate Change Date, Lender may provide me with up to three (3) additional payment options that are greater than the Minimum Payment, which are called "Payment Options." I may be given the following Payment Options:

- (i) Interest Only Payment: the amount that would pay the interest portion of the monthly payment at the current interest rate. The Principal balance will not be decreased by this Payment Option and it is only available if the interest portion exceeds the Minimum Payment.
- (ii) Fully Amortized Payment: the amount necessary to pay the loan off (Principal and Interest) at the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments.
- (iii) 15 Year Amortized Payment: the amount necessary to pay the loan off (Principal and Interest) within a fifteen (15) year term from the first payment due date in substantially equal payments. This monthly payment amount is calculated on the assumption that the current rate will remain in effect for the remaining term.

These Payment Options are only applicable if they are greater than the Minimum Payment.

LOAN NO. 206-989130

4. NOTICE OF CHANGES

The Note Holder will deliver or mail to me a notice of any changes in the amount of my monthly payment before the effective date of any change. The notice will include information required by law to be given to me and also the title and telephone number of a person who will answer any question I may have regarding the notice.

5. BORROWER'S RIGHT TO PREPAY

I have the right to make payments of Principal at any time before they are due. A payment of Principal only is known as a "Prepayment." When I make a Prepayment, I will tell the Note Holder in writing that I am doing so. I may not designate a payment as a Prepayment if I have not made all the monthly payments due under this Note.

I may make a full Prepayment or partial Prepayments without paying any Prepayment charge. The Note Holder will use my Prepayments to reduce the amount of Principal that I owe under this Note. If I make a partial Prepayment, there will be no changes in the due dates of my monthly payments. My partial Prepayment may reduce the amount of my monthly payments after the first Payment Change Date following my partial Prepayment. However, any reduction due to my partial Prepayment may be offset by an interest rate increase.

6. LOAN CHARGES

If a law, which applies to this loan and which sets maximum loan charges, is finally interpreted so that the interest or other loan charges collected or to be collected in connection with this loan exceed the permitted limits, then: (a) any such loan charge shall be reduced by the amount necessary to reduce the charge to the permitted limit; and (b) any sums already collected from me that exceeded permitted limits will be refunded to me. The Note Holder may choose to make this refund by reducing the Principal I owe under this Note or by making a direct payment to me. If a refund reduces Principal, the reduction will be treated as a partial Prepayment.

7. BORROWER'S FAILURE TO PAY AS REQUIRED

(A) Late Charges for Overdue Payments

If the Note Holder has not received the full amount of any monthly payment by the end of fifteen (15) calendar days after the date it is due, I will pay a late charge to the Note Holder. The amount of the charge will be 5.00 % of my overdue payment of Principal and Interest. I will pay this late charge promptly but only once on each late payment.

(B) Default

If I do not pay the full amount of each monthly payment on the date it is due, I will be in default.

(C) Notice of Default

If I am in default, the Note Holder may send me a written notice telling me that if I do not pay the overdue amount by a certain date, the Note Holder may require me to pay immediately the full amount of Principal that has not been paid and all the interest that I owe on that amount. The date must be at least 30 days after the date on which the notice is mailed to me or delivered by other means.

(D) No Waiver By Note Holder

Even if, at a time when I am in default, the Note Holder does not require me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will still have the right to do so if I am in default at a later time.

(E) Payment of Note Holder's Costs and Expenses

If the Note Holder has required me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will have the right to be paid back by me for all of its costs and expenses in enforcing this Note to the extent not prohibited by applicable law. These expenses include, for example, reasonable attorneys' fees.

8. GIVING OF NOTICES

Unless applicable law requires a different method, any notice that must be given to me under this Note will be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail to me at the Property Address above or at a different address if I give the Note Holder a notice of my different address.

Unless the Note Holder requires a different method, any notice that must be given to the Note Holder under this Note will be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail to the Note Holder at the address stated in Section 3(A) above or at a different address if I am given a notice of that different address.

9. OBLIGATIONS OF PERSONS UNDER THIS NOTE

If more than one person signs this Note, each person is fully and personally obligated to keep all the promises made in this Note, including the promise to pay the full amount owed. Any person who is a guarantor, surety or endorser of this Note is also obligated to do these things. Any person who takes over these obligations, including the obligations of a guarantor, surety or endorser of this Note, is also obligated to keep all the promises made in this Note. The Note Holder may enforce its rights under this Note against each person individually or against all of us together. This means that any one of us may be required to pay all the amounts owed under this Note.

10. WAIVERS

I and any other person who has obligations under this Note waive the rights of Presentment and Notice of Dishonor. "Presentment" means the right to require the Note Holder to demand payment of amounts due. "Notice of Dishonor" means the right to require the Note Holder to give notice to other persons that amounts due have not been paid.

11. SECURED NOTE

In addition to the protections given to the Note Holder under this Note, a Mortgage, Deed of Trust, or Security Deed (the "Security Instrument"), dated the same date as this Note, protects the Note Holder from possible losses that might result if I do not keep the promises that I make in this Note. That Security Instrument describes how and under what conditions I may be required to make immediate payment in full of all amounts I owe under this Note. Some of these conditions are described as follows:

Transfer of the Property or a Beneficial Interest in Borrower. As used in this Section 18, "Interest in the Property" means any legal or beneficial interest in the Property, including, but not limited to, those beneficial interests transferred in a bond for deed, contract for deed, installment sales contract or escrow agreement, the intent of which is the transfer of title by Borrower at a future date to a purchaser.

If all or any part of the Property or any Interest in the Property is sold or transferred (or if Borrower is not a natural person and a beneficial interest in Borrower is sold or transferred) without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. However, this option shall not be exercised by Lender if such exercise is prohibited by Applicable Law. Lender also shall not exercise this option if: (a) Borrower causes to be submitted to Lender information required by Lender to evaluate the intended transferee as if a new loan were being made to the transferee; and (b) Lender reasonably determines that Lender's security will not be impaired by the loan assumption and that the risk of a breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument is acceptable to Lender.

To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, Lender may charge a reasonable fee as a condition to Lender's consent to the loan assumption. Lender may also require the transferee to sign an assumption agreement that is acceptable to Lender and that obligates the transferee to keep all the promises and agreements made in the Note and in this Security Instrument. Borrower will continue to be obligated under the Note and this Security Instrument unless Lender releases Borrower in writing.

If Lender exercises the option to require immediate payment in full, Lender shall give Borrower notice of acceleration. The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given in accordance with Section 15 within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower fails to pay these sums prior to the expiration of this period, Lender may invoke any remedies permitted by this Security Instrument without further notice or demand on Borrower.

PREPAYMENT PENALTY - FIRST 12 MONTHS OF NOTE

You have the right to make payments of Principal at any time before they are due. A payment of Principal only is known as a "Prepayment". When you make a Prepayment, you must tell the Note Holder in writing that you are doing so.

Subject to the Prepayment Penalty specified below, you may make a full Prepayment or partial Prepayment of your obligation. The Note Holder will use all of your Prepayments to reduce the amount of principal that you owe under this Note. If you make a partial Prepayment, there will be no changes in the due date(s) or in the amount of your monthly payment unless the Note Holder agrees in writing to those changes.

If within the 12 month period beginning with the date of the Note, (the "Penalty Period"), you make a full or partial Prepayment, you will pay a prepayment charge as consideration for the Note Holder's acceptance of such payment. No prepayment charge will be assessed for any prepayment made after the Penalty Period.

You may prepay an amount not exceeding twenty percent (20%) of the original principal amount in any twelve month period commencing from the date of the Note or anniversary dates thereof without penalty. However, during the Penalty Period, if the aggregate amount of the principal prepaid in any twelve month period exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the original principal amount of this loan, then as consideration of the acceptance of such Prepayment and in addition to any other sum payable hereunder, you agree to pay the Note Holder hereof a sum equal to six (6) months interest on the amount prepaid in excess of twenty percent (20%) of the original principal amount at the rate specified in the Note.

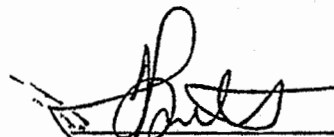

Such additional sums shall be paid whether prepayment is voluntary or involuntary including any prepayment affected by the exercise of any acceleration provisions contained in the Note to which this Rider is attached, or in the Security Instrument securing the Note to which this Rider is attached.

All other terms and conditions of the Note remain in full force and effect.

By signing below, Borrower accepts and agrees to the terms and provisions contained in this Rider to Note and Security Instrument.

NOTICE TO BORROWER

Do not sign this loan agreement before you read it. This loan agreement provides for the payment of a penalty if you wish to repay the loan prior to the date provided for repayments in the loan agreement.

THIS NOTE CONTAINS PROVISIONS THAT WILL CHANGE THE INTEREST RATE AND THE MONTHLY PAYMENT. THERE MAY BE A LIMIT ON THE AMOUNT THAT THE MONTHLY PAYMENT CAN INCREASE OR DECREASE. THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT TO REPAY COULD BE GREATER THAN THE AMOUNT ORIGINALLY BORROWED, BUT NOT MORE THAN THE MAXIMUM LIMIT STATED IN THIS NOTE.

1. BORROWER'S PROMISE TO PAY

In return for a loan that I have received, I promise to pay U.S. $ 556,000.00 (this amount is called "Principal"), plus interest, to the order of Lender. The Principal amount may increase as provided under the terms of this Note but will never exceed (ONE HUNDRED FIFTEEN PERCENT ) of the Principal amount I originally borrowed. This is called the "Maximum Limit." Lender is AMERICAN MORTGAGE NETWORK, INC., A DELAWARE CORPORATION
I will make all payments under this Note in the form of cash, check or money order.

I understand that Lender may transfer this Note. Lender or anyone who takes this Note by transfer and who is entitled to receive payments under this Note is called the "Note Holder."

2. INTEREST

(A) Interest Rate

Interest will be charged on unpaid Principal until the full amount of Principal has been paid. I will pay interest at a yearly rate of 1.500 %. The interest rate I will pay may change.

The interest rate required by this Section 2 is the rate I will pay both before and after any default described in Section 7(B) of this Note.

(B) Interest Rate Change Dates

The interest rate I will pay may change on the 1ST day of JANUARY, 2007 and on that day every month thereafter. Each date on which my interest rate could change is called an "Interest Rate Change Date." The new rate of interest will become effective on each Interest Rate Change Date. The interest rate may change monthly, but the monthly payment is recalculated in accordance with Section 3.

(C) Index

Beginning with the first Interest Rate Change Date, my adjustable interest rate will be based on an Index. The "Index" is the "Twelve-Month Average" of the annual yields on actively traded United States Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of one year as published by the Federal Reserve Board in the Federal Reserve Statistical Release entitled "Selected Interest Rates (H.15)" (the "Monthly Yields"). The Twelve Month Average is determined by adding together the Monthly Yields for the most recently available twelve months and dividing by 12. The most recent Index figure available as of the date 15 days before each Interest Rate Change Date is called the "Current Index".

If the Index is no longer available, the Note Holder will choose a new index that is based upon comparable information. The Note Holder will give me notice of this choice.

(D) Calculation of Interest Rate Changes

Before each Interest Rate Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate my new interest rate by adding THREE AND 400/1000 percentage point(s) 3.400 % ("Margin") to the Current Index. The Note Holder will then round the result of this addition to the nearest one-eighth of one percentage point (0.125%). This rounded amount will be my new interest rate until the next Interest Rate Change Date. My interest will never be greater than 9.950 %. Beginning with the first Interest Rate Change Date, my interest rate will never be lower than the Margin.

3. PAYMENTS

(A) Time and Place of Payments

I will make a payment every month.

I will make my monthly payments on the 1ST day of each month beginning on JANUARY 01, 2007. I will make these payments every month until I have paid all the Principal and Interest and any other charges described below that I may owe under this Note. Each monthly payment will be applied as of its scheduled due date and will be applied to interest before Principal. If, on DECEMBER 01, 2036, I still owe amounts under this Note, I will pay those amounts in full on that date, which is called the "Maturity Date."

I will make my monthly payments at P. O. BOX 85302

ATTN: CASHIER'S DEPT., SAN DIEGO, CA 92186

or at a different place if required by the Note Holder.

LOAN NO. 206-989130

(B) Amount of My Initial Monthly Payments

Each of my initial monthly payments until the first Payment Change Date will be in the amount of U.S.
$ 1,918.87 unless adjusted under Section 3 (F).

(C) Payment Change Dates

My monthly payment may change as required by Section 3(D) below beginning on the 1ST day of JANUARY, 2008, and on that day every 12th month thereafter. Each of these dates is called a "Payment Change Date." My monthly payment also will change at any time Section 3(F) or 3(G) below requires me to pay a different monthly payment. The "Minimum Payment" is the minimum amount the Note Holder will accept for my monthly payment which is determined at the last Payment Change Date or as provided in Section 3(F) or 3(G) below. If the Minimum Payment is not sufficient to cover the amount of the interest due then negative amortization will occur.

I will pay the amount of my new Minimum Payment each month beginning on each Payment Change Date or as provided in Section 3(F) or 3(G) below.

(D) Calculation of Monthly Payment Changes

At least 30 days before each Payment Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate the amount of the monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid Principal that I am expected to owe at the Payment Change Date in full on the maturity date in substantially equal payments at the interest rate effective during the month preceding the Payment Change Date. The result of this calculation is called the "Full Payment." Unless Section 3(F) or 3(G) apply, the amount of my new monthly payment effective on a Payment Change Date, will not increase by more than 7.5% of my prior monthly payment. This 7.5% limitation is called the "Payment Cap."
This Payment Cap applies only to the Principal and Interest payment and does not apply to any escrow payments.
Lender may require under the Security Instrument. The Note Holder will apply the Payment Cap by taking the amount of my Minimum Payment due the month preceding the Payment Change Date and multiplying it by the number 1.075. The result of this calculation is called the "Limited Payment." Unless Section 3(F) or 3(G) below requires me to pay a different amount, my new Minimum Payment will be the lesser of the Limited Payment and the Full Payment. I also have the option to pay the Full Payment for my monthly payment.

(E) Additions to My Unpaid Principal

Since my monthly payment amount changes less frequently than the interest rate, and since the monthly payment is subject to the payment limitations described in Section 3 (D), my Minimum Payment could be less than or greater than the amount of the interest portion of the monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid Principal I owe at the monthly payment date in full on the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments. For each month that my monthly payment is less than the interest portion, the Note Holder will subtract the amount of my monthly payment from the amount of the interest portion and will add the difference to my unpaid Principal, and interest will accrue on the amount of this difference at the interest rate required by Section 2. For each month that the monthly payment is greater than the interest portion, the Note Holder will apply the payment as provided in Section 3 (A).

(F) Limit on My Unpaid Principal; Increased Monthly Payment

My unpaid Principal can never exceed the Maximum Limit equal to 115 percent of the Principal amount I originally borrowed. My unpaid Principal could exceed that Maximum Limit due to Minimum Payments and interest rate increases. In that event, on the date that my paying my monthly payment would cause me to exceed that limit, I will instead pay a new monthly payment. This means that my monthly payment may change more frequently than annually and such payment changes will not be limited by the 7.5% Payment Cap. The new Minimum Payment will be in an amount that would be sufficient to repay my then unpaid Principal in full on the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments at the current interest rate.

(G) Required Full Payment

On the TENTH Payment Change Date and on each succeeding fifth Payment Change Date thereafter, I will begin paying the Full Payment as my Minimum Payment until my monthly payment changes again. I also will begin paying the Full Payment as my Minimum Payment on the final Payment Change Date.

(H) Payment Options

After the first Interest Rate Change Date, Lender may provide me with up to three (3) additional payment options that are greater than the Minimum Payment, which are called "Payment Options." I may be given the following Payment Options:

- (i) Interest Only Payment: the amount that would pay the interest portion of the monthly payment at the current interest rate. The Principal balance will not be decreased by this Payment Option and it is only available if the interest portion exceeds the Minimum Payment.
- (ii) Fully Amortized Payment: the amount necessary to pay the loan off (Principal and Interest) at the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments.
- (iii) 15 Year Amortized Payment: the amount necessary to pay the loan off (Principal and Interest) within a fifteen (15) year term from the first payment due date in substantially equal payments. This monthly payment amount is calculated on the assumption that the current rate will remain in effect for the remaining term.

These Payment Options are only applicable if they are greater than the Minimum Payment.

LOAN NO. 206-989130

4. NOTICE OF CHANGES

The Note Holder will deliver or mail to me a notice of any changes in the amount of my monthly payment before the effective date of any change. The notice will include information required by law to be given to me and also the title and telephone number of a person who will answer any question I may have regarding the notice.

5. BORROWER'S RIGHT TO PREPAY

I have the right to make payments of Principal at any time before they are due. A payment of Principal only is known as a "Prepayment." When I make a Prepayment, I will tell the Note Holder in writing that I am doing so. I may not designate a payment as a Prepayment if I have not made all the monthly payments due under this Note.

I may make a full Prepayment or partial Prepayments without paying any Prepayment charge. The Note Holder will use my Prepayments to reduce the amount of Principal that I owe under this Note. If I make a partial Prepayment, there will be no changes in the due dates of my monthly payments. My partial Prepayment may reduce the amount of my monthly payments after the first Payment Change Date following my partial Prepayment. However, any reduction due to my partial Prepayment may be offset by an interest rate increase.

6. LOAN CHARGES

If a law, which applies to this loan and which sets maximum loan charges, is finally interpreted so that the interest or other loan charges collected or to be collected in connection with this loan exceed the permitted limits, then: (a) any such loan charge shall be reduced by the amount necessary to reduce the charge to the permitted limit; and (b) any sums already collected from me that exceeded permitted limits will be refunded to me. The Note Holder may choose to make this refund by reducing the Principal I owe under this Note or by making a direct payment to me. If a refund reduces Principal, the reduction will be treated as a partial Prepayment.

7. BORROWER'S FAILURE TO PAY AS REQUIRED

(A) Late Charges for Overdue Payments

If the Note Holder has not received the full amount of any monthly payment by the end of fifteen (15) calendar days after the date it is due, I will pay a late charge to the Note Holder. The amount of the charge will be 5.00 % of my overdue payment of Principal and Interest. I will pay this late charge promptly but only once on each late payment.

(B) Default

If I do not pay the full amount of each monthly payment on the date it is due, I will be in default.

(C) Notice of Default

If I am in default, the Note Holder may send me a written notice telling me that if I do not pay the overdue amount by a certain date, the Note Holder may require me to pay immediately the full amount of Principal that has not been paid and all the interest that I owe on that amount. The date must be at least 30 days after the date on which the notice is mailed to me or delivered by other means.

(D) No Waiver By Note Holder

Even if, at a time when I am in default, the Note Holder does not require me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will still have the right to do so if I am in default at a later time.

(E) Payment of Note Holder's Costs and Expenses

If the Note Holder has required me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will have the right to be paid back by me for all of its costs and expenses in enforcing this Note to the extent not prohibited by applicable law. These expenses include, for example, reasonable attorneys' fees.

8. GIVING OF NOTICES

Unless applicable law requires a different method, any notice that must be given to me under this Note will be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail to me at the Property Address above or at a different address if I give the Note Holder a notice of my different address.

Unless the Note Holder requires a different method, any notice that must be given to the Note Holder under this Note will be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail to the Note Holder at the address stated in Section 3(A) above or at a different address if I am given a notice of that different address.

9. OBLIGATIONS OF PERSONS UNDER THIS NOTE

If more than one person signs this Note, each person is fully and personally obligated to keep all the promises made in this Note, including the promise to pay the full amount owed. Any person who is a guarantor, surety or endorser of this Note is also obligated to do these things. Any person who takes over these obligations, including the obligations of a guarantor, surety or endorser of this Note, is also obligated to keep all the promises made in this Note. The Note Holder may enforce its rights under this Note against each person individually or against all of us together. This means that any one of us may be required to pay all the amounts owed under this Note.

10. WAIVERS

I and any other person who has obligations under this Note waive the rights of Presentment and Notice of Dishonor. "Presentment" means the right to require the Note Holder to demand payment of amounts due. "Notice of Dishonor" means the right to require the Note Holder to give notice to other persons that amounts due have not been paid.

11. SECURED NOTE

In addition to the protections given to the Note Holder under this Note, a Mortgage, Deed of Trust, or Security Deed (the "Security Instrument"), dated the same date as this Note, protects the Note Holder from possible losses that might result if I do not keep the promises that I make in this Note. That Security Instrument describes how and under what conditions I may be required to make immediate payment in full of all amounts I owe under this Note. Some of these conditions are described as follows:

Transfer of the Property or a Beneficial Interest in Borrower. As used in this Section 18, "Interest in the Property" means any legal or beneficial interest in the Property, including, but not limited to, those beneficial interests transferred in a bond for deed, contract for deed, installment sales contract or escrow agreement, the intent of which is the transfer of title by Borrower at a future date to a purchaser.

If all or any part of the Property or any Interest in the Property is sold or transferred (or if Borrower is not a natural person and a beneficial interest in Borrower is sold or transferred) without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. However, this option shall not be exercised by Lender if such exercise is prohibited by Applicable Law. Lender also shall not exercise this option if: (a) Borrower causes to be submitted to Lender information required by Lender to evaluate the intended transferee as if a new loan were being made to the transferee; and (b) Lender reasonably determines that Lender's security will not be impaired by the loan assumption and that the risk of a breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument is acceptable to Lender.

To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, Lender may charge a reasonable fee as a condition to Lender's consent to the loan assumption. Lender may also require the transferee to sign an assumption agreement that is acceptable to Lender and that obligates the transferee to keep all the promises and agreements made in the Note and in this Security Instrument. Borrower will continue to be obligated under the Note and this Security Instrument unless Lender releases Borrower in writing.

If Lender exercises the option to require immediate payment in full, Lender shall give Borrower notice of acceleration. The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given in accordance with Section 15 within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower fails to pay these sums prior to the expiration of this period, Lender may invoke any remedies permitted by this Security Instrument without further notice or demand on Borrower.

PREPAYMENT PENALTY - FIRST 12 MONTHS OF NOTE

You have the right to make payments of Principal at any time before they are due. A payment of Principal only is known as a "Prepayment". When you make a Prepayment, you must tell the Note Holder in writing that you are doing so.

Subject to the Prepayment Penalty specified below, you may make a full Prepayment or partial Prepayment of your obligation. The Note Holder will use all of your Prepayments to reduce the amount of principal that you owe under this Note. If you make a partial Prepayment, there will be no changes in the due date(s) or in the amount of your monthly payment unless the Note Holder agrees in writing to those changes.

If within the 12 month period beginning with the date of the Note, (the "Penalty Period"), you make a full or partial Prepayment, you will pay a prepayment charge as consideration for the Note Holder's acceptance of such payment. No prepayment charge will be assessed for any prepayment made after the Penalty Period.

You may prepay an amount not exceeding twenty percent (20%) of the original principal amount in any twelve month period commencing from the date of the Note or anniversary dates thereof without penalty. However, during the Penalty Period, if the aggregate amount of the principal prepaid in any twelve month period exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the original principal amount of this loan, then as consideration of the acceptance of such Prepayment and in addition to any other sum payable hereunder, you agree to pay the Note Holder hereof a sum equal to six (6) months interest on the amount prepaid in excess of twenty percent (20%) of the original principal amount at the rate specified in the Note.

Such additional sums shall be paid whether prepayment is voluntary or involuntary including any prepayment affected by the exercise of any acceleration provisions contained in the Note to which this Rider is attached, or in the Security Instrument securing the Note to which this Rider is attached.

All other terms and conditions of the Note remain in full force and effect.

By signing below, Borrower accepts and agrees to the terms and provisions contained in this Rider to Note and Security Instrument.

NOTICE TO BORROWER

Do not sign this loan agreement before you read it. This loan agreement provides for the payment of a penalty if you wish to repay the loan prior to the date provided for repayments in the loan agreement.
